*General Counsel and E.V.P.
Kellstrom Defense*

Nathan Skop is General Counsel, Executive Vice President, and Corporate Secretary for Kellstrom Defense. Mr. Skop is responsible for the overall legal, contracts, and compliance function for all Kellstrom Defense companies, with focus on ensuring all business practices conform to regulatory requirements. He is also charged with successfully navigating the legal and regulatory facets inherent to the organization's increasingly more complex product offerings.

Mr. Skop has over twenty years of experience in aerospace and defense, power generation, business management, energy, regulatory policy, and the practice of law. He is an accomplished professional in business development, law, contracts, compliance, risk management, strategy, financial management, program management, engineering, and governmental/regulatory affairs. Prior to joining Kellstrom Defense, he was most engaged as an attorney in the private sector. Appointed by Florida's Governor and confirmed by the Florida Senate, Skop previously served as a Commissioner on the Florida Public Service Commission. Mr. Skop previously held leadership roles at FPL Energy, Boeing Commercial Airplane Group, and General Dynamics Corporation.

Mr. Skop holds a J.D. degree from Levin College of Law at the University of Florida, an M.B.A. from the Lally School of Management at Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute, and a B.S. in Aerospace Engineering from the University of Florida. Mr Skop also attended the Mergers and Acquisitions Executive Education Program at the Wharton School of Business.
